DEAR FRIENDS AND FAMILIES,

Welcome to the culminating performance of our 25th season of dance in Palm Beach County! We are thrilled to have you here as we celebrate our silver anniversary, a testament to the brilliance, radiance, and enduring relationship we have with our community. Tonight, we gather to witness the incredible artistry and passion of our young dancers, as they showcase their talents on this special occasion and SHINE, SHINE, SHINE!!!

That's Dancing would like to congratulate all of our students on an incredible season of dance. We are proud of our dancers celebrating their first Gala, our seasoned performers celebrating multiple Galas, as well as our graduating seniors celebrating their final stage performances with our studio family. All of our students have brought their unique sparkle and boundless creativity into our space and throughout this remarkable 25th season of dance. As we celebrate our silver anniversary Gala, we reflect on the extraordinary journey we have embarked upon together, filled with joy, growth, and unforgettable moments.

Teaching dancers and witnessing their accomplishments over the span of 25 years never ceases to inspire and energize us as artistic directors. Guiding and nurturing the youth of Palm Beach County in the art of dance for a quarter of a century, we have been privileged to witness countless remarkable achievements within our student body. From prestigious program acceptances to personal growth, their dedication and talent continue to amaze us.

As part of our 25th-anniversary celebration, we are delighted to announce a special treat for you. This weekend, we have the privilege of welcoming back some of our talented alumni, ranging in graduation dates from 2002 to 2022, to join us on this momentous occasion. These remarkable individuals will grace our stage once again, showcasing their exceptional artistry and proving that dance can always be a part of your life, regardless of career paths or life's twists and turns. Their presence adds a touch of nostalgia and celebration to our 25th-anniversary performance, while also inspiring our current students to dream big and persevere. We are honored to have these accomplished individuals return to our studio, and we couldn't be prouder of their enduring accomplishments.

Amidst our joyous celebration, we also take a moment to honor the life of Barbara Brooks, affectionately known as Mema. Barbara started as a dance grandmom, later becoming a student, and eventually worked in our office, always remaining our number one supporter. She fought her battle with cancer with unwavering strength, and her presence will be dearly missed. This weekend, we dedicate our performances to her and dance in her memory.

We would also like to express our heartfelt gratitude to our extraordinary faculty. These dedicated educators continuously create magic and seamlessly step up for our students and our studio. Full-time faculty member Nicole Smith tirelessly and enthusiastically works with our dancers, leading and directing our Young Dancer Program and our student ambassador program with grace and expertise. We extend our thanks to long-time faculty members Larry Albright and Katherine Lameyer Beukers, who are celebrating their 15th season with the school, as well as Kameron Bink, Christi Cianciotto, Clarissa Castaneda, Loren Foster, Taylor Russell, Leah Stricker, Struther White, Jordyn Graham and Walter Guterrez for their dedication and expert training of our dancers. We would also like to express our gratitude to our office manager, Linda Marzlak, for her unwavering support and efforts in keeping our office running smoothly and ensuring our faculty is well taken care of.

CONTINUED.....

Together, we celebrate 25 years of dance, honoring the past, embracing the present, and ready to tackle the future. We extend our deepest gratitude to our dancers, families, alumni, faculty, and the cherished memory of Barbara Brooks. Your unwavering support has made our journey possible, and we look forward to the continued growth of our dance community.

We would also like to take a special moment to recognize and thank our parents, whose generosity and belief in our vision led to the initial purchase of That's Dancing 25 years ago. Our mom continues to support by attending every performance and is still always there to fix a costume or help wherever needed at 91 years young. Our dad, who is no longer here in physical body is always with us and guiding us spiritually. Without their support, none of this would have been possible. Their love, dedication, and faith in us have been the cornerstone of our success. We also extend our heartfelt appreciation to our immediate families for their constant support, understanding, and love throughout this remarkable journey. It has truly been a lifetime of dedication, and we couldn't have accomplished all that we have without them by our side. Thank you Big Nick, Nicky, Milana, Mason and Riley. We love you.

As we gather here tonight, let us celebrate the remarkable achievements of our dancers, the invaluable contributions of our faculty, the enduring bonds within our dance family, and the everlasting impact of dance on our lives. We are honored to share this milestone with each and every one of you.

With profound gratitude and excitement,
Andrea LaMaina & Michele Walsh

ANDREA LAMAINA

This is what is on the website....Andrea LaMaina is a dedicated dance educator that has been training dancers for close to 3 decades. She received her BFA in Dance Performance and Education from Towson University in Maryland. Mrs. LaMaina is a past President of DMA, Florida Chapter 2 and is a member of both Dance Master of America and Dance Educators of America. She holds a National Teacher Education Certification as well as a Teacher Certification in Dance/Vocational Arts. She is the President of "The Young Dancer Foundation of South Florida, Inc." a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization that accepts charitable, tax deductible donations to benefit talented young dancers. Andrea is the Co-Founder of the So Flo Tap Festival, and produces an annual event to promote the American art form of tap dancing, tap jamming and improvisation. Andrea is the proud teacher of a 2022 YoungArts award winner in modern contemporary dance. Her students continuously earn scholarships to prestigious summer intensives and higher education dance degree programs. Andrea's choreography has earned many awards throughout the years and she is sought after as a judge on several competition circuits. Before college, Andrea trained under master teacher Fred Knecht. Before becoming co-owner and Artistic Director of That's Dancing, she was a faculty member at Glen Rock Middle School where she designed and created an exploratory arts curriculum, which included dance and creative movement. In 1997, she was nominated for The Sallie Mae Best New Teacher of the Year Award, a national honor recognizing her achievements in innovative curriculum development and design for public education. She is an active member of the National Dance Association and the Florida Dance Association. Early in her journey, she trained under scholarship for the Summer Program with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre and danced and acted professionally in various roles at the Bucks County Playhouse in Pennsylvania. Mrs. LaMaina is an educator that has dedicated her career to helping young dancers achieve their dreams. She is committed to excellence, innovation, and community service through the art of dance. Dance is her life long love and something that she wants to continue to passionately share with future generations of young artists.

NICOLE SMITH

Nicole Smith graduated from the University of Central Florida with a Bachelor of the Arts degree in Interdisciplinary Studies and a minor in dance. She is a That's Dancing and Fusion Force Dance Company Alumni and also trained at New World School of the Arts, a dance conservatory and performing arts college, in Miami. Shortly after completing her first year at NWSA, she was accepted into the University of Central Florida. While attending UCF, Nicole focused her degree studies in dance and the arts. In addition to her active role in the UCF dance community, Nicole also became involved in the performing arts throughout Central Florida and began her career as a dance educator and choreographer. While in college, Nicole was selected to tour with MAC Cosmetics as a model and a tap dancer to help launch their cosmetic line "Hey Sailor!" She has been a part of the Entertainment Department at SeaWorld in Orlando, Florida as a character performer. After a successful season at SeaWorld, Nicole accepted a contract with VEE Corporation to travel and tour the United States and Canada with Sesame Street Live where she was chosen to play the lead role of Elmo in the production: Elmo Makes Music. After her tour ended Nicole moved to South Florida where she continues to teach, perform, and choreograph. Nicole is celebrating her 9th season as a faculty member and resident choreographer at That's Dancing where she also serves as the Director of the Young Dancer Program, overseeing classes for dancers ages 3-6 years old. In addition to teaching, Nicole helps to co-produce So Flo Tap Fest with Andrea LaMaina. This past October, Nicole and Andrea had the opportunity to partner with SoDanca to produce the first ever So Flo Tap Fest and "Toe,Ball, Heal" fundraising event to raise money for the Susan G. Komen Foundation. She is a member of the iTap Online Virtual Dance Community and successfully completed the Tap Teacher Training course this past summer where she focused on teaching tap dance history, improvisation and music theory. Nicole is also certified as a Level 1 "Building Blocks of Dance" instructor which focuses on strength training and injury prevention for young dancers. Her additional credits include: choreography and production work on the short dance film 'Ayita's Dream,' which won Best Film at Film Gate film festival, and lead choreographer for the concept dance video "Presidente," which was used as a part of the Pepsi campaign in 2020. Nicole is passionate about dance and life, and strives to inspire and educate the next generation of young artists and leaders.

They have had their own choreographic work featured in Juilliard Choreographic Workshops and in time away from school, they set new work on young dancers in the community. Nick was recently selected to be a part of the Gluck Community Service Fellowship through Juilliard. Nick has a love for contemporary dance and an enthusiasm for new creations. Recently, Nick has created original works for The Juilliard Dance Division's Workshop Series. Nick believes that they are an artist before they are a dancer. When Nick is dancing and creating, they pull from sources outside of the dance world: humanity, the earth, visual arts, and other performing arts. They also use their personal experience to create spaces that feel relatable, vulnerable, and authentic. Nick is looking forward to spending Summer of 2023 teaching and choreographing in South Florida and the New York City area and researching at B12 in Berlin and GagaLab Tel Aviv.

ALEXANDER THOMAS

Alexander Thomas is a 20-year-old public figure that continues to create and remain curious every single day. As an Alumni of Bak Middle School of the Arts and Dreyfoos School of the Arts, Alexander is currently a Junior BFA Major at USC Glorya Kaufman School of Dance while he has been dancing for 18 years at his home studio at That's Dancing. Growing up, Alexander has never been new to adversity.

With a rare genetic heart disease, diagnosed in 5th grade, he has beaten the odds when told he can't dance anymore. Alexander not only teaches and performs all dance styles but has now started sharing his choreography with the world. While also living in Los Angeles, California, he is currently an actor who has been a part of many national commercials and intends to continue in this work. Alexander has founded a non-profit organization that gives back to the underprivileged community to give back to those who are less fortunate. Alexander loves to move and his curiosity loves to bring smiles and enjoyment in his work. His most known quote is "Out of every crisis comes an opportunity."

EKKO GREENBAUM

Ekko Greenbaum is an artist currently based in Boston, Massachusetts. A student at the Boston Conservatory (2025), Ekko studies Contemporary Dance (BFA) with plans to declare an emphasis in choreography. In her time at the Boston Conservatory, Ekko has performed as a soloist in Murray Louis's Four Brubeck Pieces, as well as originating soloist roles in new works by Daniel Pelzig and Asia Pyron. Ekko is originally from West Palm Beach, Florida, and attended A.W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts (2021) where she performed masterworks by Paul Taylor, George Balanchine, & Bob Fosse, among others, and premiered in new pieces by Troy Powell, Peter Stark, Solomon Dumas, and more. It was in high school that Ekko explored her immense passion for dance history, segueing into a love for codified technique and classical repertory. Ekko has attended programs like The Philadelphia Ballet School, Next Generation Ballet, and multiple workshops with the Limón Dance Company in New York. Beyond codification, Ekko finds great appreciation for the choreographic process and began to develop her own upon entering college. In the summer of 2022, Ekko was invited to showcase her work In Perpetuum at the New Century Dance Project in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Under the direction of Francisco Gella and Yusha Marie-Sorzano, Ekko was granted the festival's grand prize award in the undergraduate division, adjudicated by Jim Vincent, Penny Saunders, and Julie Friedrich. In 2023, Ekko produced a duet entitled "Rubber Pencil take #1" which was selected to be performed on the Boston Conservatory MainStage as a part of the "WinterWorks" annual concert. Aside from dance and choreography, Ekko works within poetry, prose, photography, art, and music to explore the depths of her creativity. In 2021, she received a Scholastic Art & Writing Award silver key in Photography. In 2022, Ekko worked with contemporary art duo Lundahl & Seitel on their immersive exhibition, Symphony of A Missing Room/ The Memor, shown at MIT's ACT Cube in Cambridge, MA. Ekko looks forward to furthering her exploration of dance and continues to learn and teach codified technique from a somatic, aware, and individualistic perspective. Influenced by modern/postmodern pioneers, Ekko believes that while history and experience informs the body, movement relies on the individuality of sensation; she approaches dance with an emphasis on personal exploration of phenomena like instinct, gravity, momentum, and weight.

DESTINEE JIMENEZ

SHE ADDED A LITTLE SPARKLE EVERYWHERE SHE WENT...

Barbara Brooks left her physical body on April 16th 2023 but her legacy will always remain here and with us at That's Dancing. Mema as we lovingly referred to her, loved everything about dance and the students at That's Dancing. She started her granddaughter, Rachel, dancing with us and quickly became a cheerleader for the school and every single dancer who walked through the doors. She even began to take dance lessons herself and performed a duet with her granddaughter and even started to compete solos as an honorary Fusion Force Dance Company member after her granddaughter graduated. Mema received her 15 year student award and also began to work in our front office. Before her passing, she made sure that we knew that being part of our studio was the highlight of her life. Anyone that knew Mema knows that she was the light and we are all better for knowing her. To our dancing queen, may you continue to dance in heaven with the angels. You were our angel on earth and your support, love, dedication and loyalty are the legacy that you leave us. We will continue to dance in your honor and know you will be cheering us on always! (A memory book will be available in the lobby if you would like to contribute any stories or memories of Mema. It will also be at our 25th Gala celebrations in the lobby of the auditorium.)

A Celebration of life will take place on 6/23, 2:00 pm service, life celebration immediately following.

The Service and Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, June 23, 2023, at 2:00 pm EST, at United Methodist Church of West Palm Beach, 900 Brandywine Rd., West Palm Beach, FL, 33409, with Pastor Phyllis Parthemer officiating. The family will receive friends immediately following the service in the church reception rooms - 111 & 112.
