A Professional Dance Technique

Families & Friends,

It has been one year since our Fusion Force Dance Company has taken to a professional stage to perform as a team. Through the adversity of the last year, these dancers have persevered and continued to hone their craft. As performing artists, we as dancers, crave the stage. Being on a stage represents hundreds of hours of sweat and hard work as well as being a place to share our artistry for personal and public accolades. Today is a special day for all of us and we are truly grateful for your support. Attending this show in person or logging in to watch us virtually means more than we could adequately express with words. Thank you.

Thank you to our dedicated, resilient, creative, caring, and finest faculty and staff. You have all been an exemplary example of teamwork. Coming together in a time of crisis is an example of how we are more powerful when working together. We cannot thank you enough for your dedication to our students and our studio. Love and utmost respect to each of you.

Thank you to the families that have supported our studio and our dancers through a very uncertain time. The families of Fusion Force Dance Company have been our rock. Your flexibility and trust in us has allowed us to continue to do what we love. Thank you for making dance and arts education a priority and for choosing That's Dancing.

To our mom, thank you for what you have done behind the scenes to support us. For the last 23 years of owning a small business and all of the years leading up, you have shown us unconditional love and unwavering support. We hope we continue to make you proud. Your example of love has enabled us to share the love with others. Thank you, mom. We love you.

Congratulations to the Graduating Class of 2021. This group of dancers has truly stepped up this season. Although this is not what they envisioned their senior year would look like, they have proven themselves as leaders and have danced their way beautifully through the obstacles that they have faced. The team is lucky to have a strong group of 8 senior team members setting the tone and holding us all to a high standard of excellence. May you all continue to soar as you begin to choose what direction your life will take. We are certain success is waiting for all of you and you all truly deserve it. Thank you for dancing ... enjoy your senior performances this afternoon. I know we all will and will be cheering for you in the theatre and throughout the country on live stream!

As we take the stage today, we have hope for the future. You are about to see the finest dancers in Palm Beach County and know that they will work hard to give you their finest performance. Enjoy the show!

With love and respect,
