WEST BOCA HIGH SCHOOL

DEAR DANCERS, PARENTS AND FRIENDS OF THAT'S DANCING,

That's Dancing would like to congratulate all of our students on an incredible season of dance. We are so proud of our first time dancers celebrating their first Gala, our seasoned performers celebrating multiple Galas as well as our graduating seniors celebrating their final stage performances with our studio family. All of our students have demonstrated resilience and creativity navigating another dance season that has been much different than years past. It has been a joy to see their growth as artists and we know that they are excited to share their gifts and talents with the audience today.

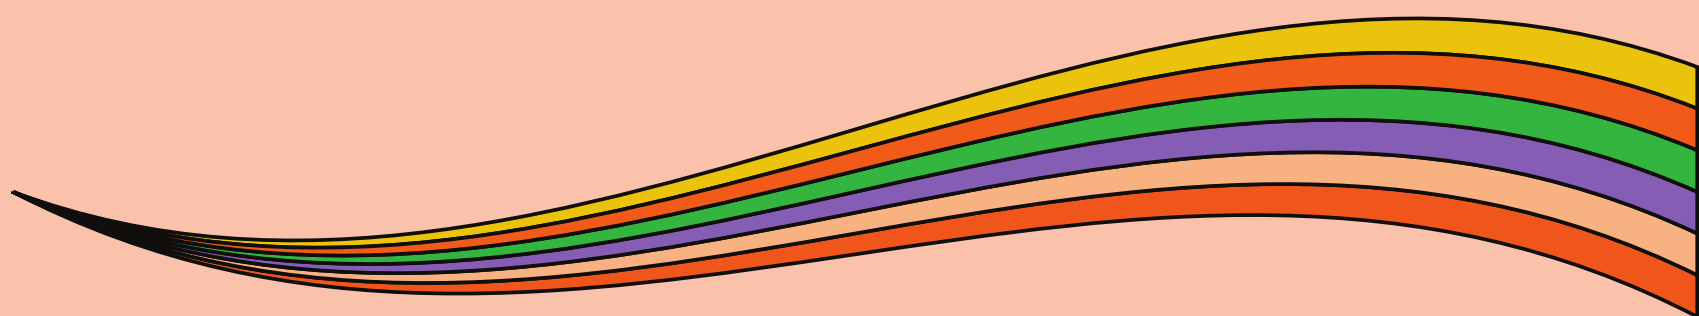

As artistic directors, we are celebrating our 24th season educating the youth of Palm Beach County in the art of dance. Numerous students have been accepted to prestigious middle and high school arts programs, summer intensives, and performing in our community. We are bursting with pride to share that several of our graduating seniors have been accepted to the top higher education dance programs in the country alongside our other graduating seniors that will attend the top Universities in the nation. Our dancers are truly incredible in so many ways.

We would also like to take the time to thank our faculty. These educators created magic and never skip a beat when asked to step up for our students and our studio. Full-time faculty member and the Director of our Young Dancer Program, Nicole Smith, faced the challenging diagnosis of breast cancer this season. Without hesitation, every faculty member on our team made it possible for Nicole to receive surgery and chemotherapy to fight her disease by covering her classes and helping her students succeed in her absence. Nicole continued to work throughout her treatment and her resilience and dedication continue to be the model of perseverance that our students can model. Thank you to Larry Albright, Kameron Bink, Christi Cianciotto, Clarissa Castaneda, Loren Foster, Katherine Lameyer Beukers, Taylor Russell, Leah Stricker, and Struther White for your loyalty, dedication, and expert training of our dancers. We cannot forget our long-time ballet teacher Viky Smith who moved at the end of this season to open a marina with her husband. She will be missed. Of course, we also want to thank our office manager Linda Marzlak. She is committed to maintaining support to our families and faculty. We appreciate all that she does to keep the office running smoothly and our faculty fed!

To our own families who continue to support our endeavors, this incredible That's Dancing family that we have built wouldn't be possible without all of your support and help throughout all these years. Thank you, Big Nick, Nicky, Milana, Mason, Riley, and of course our very own mother, Angela Petronella who was there for us on day one of the dreams.

And lastly, to the families of That's Dancing, thank you for trusting us with your most prized, beloved treasures. We commend you for valuing the arts as an integral part of your child's development. Thank you to all the dancers for working extremely hard to bring you a fabulous entertaining performance today. We are sure you will be impressed with their journey.

Peace, Love, Dance,
Andrea LaMaina & Michele Walsh
Co-Owners and Artistic Directors

MEET THE ARTISTIC DIRECTORS

Andrea LaMaina

Andrea LaMaina is a dedicated dance educator that has been training dancers for close to 3 decades. She received her BFA in Dance Performance and Education from Towson University in Maryland. Mrs. LaMaina is a past President of DMA, Florida Chapter 2 and is a member of both Dance Master of America and Dance Educators of America. She holds a National Teacher Education Certification as well as a Teacher Certification in Dance/Vocational Arts. She is the President of "The Young Dancer Foundation of South Florida, Inc." a non-profit 501(c) (3) organization that accepts charitable, tax deductible donations to benefit talented young dancers. Andrea is the Co-Founder of the So Flo Tap Festival, and produces an annual event to promote the American art form of tap dancing, tap jamming and improvisation. Andrea is the teacher and choreographer of many title holders on a regional and national level. Her students have earned many scholarships to prestigious summer intensives and higher education dance degree programs. Her choreography has earned many awards throughout the years and Andrea is sought after as a judge on several competition circuits. She enjoys teaching master classes both locally and regionally and sharing her love of dance with eager dancers. Before college, Andrea trained under master teacher Fred Knecht. Before becoming co-owner and Artistic Director of That's Dancing, she was a faculty member at Glen Rock Middle School where she designed and created an exploratory arts curriculum, which included dance and creative movement. In 1997, she was nominated for The Sallie Mae Best New Teacher of the Year Award, a national honor recognizing her achievements in innovative curriculum development and design for public education. She is an active member of the National Dance Association and the Florida Dance Association. Early in her journey, she trained under scholarship for the Summer Program with Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre and danced and acted professionally in various roles at the Bucks County Playhouse in Pennsylvania.

Brenan Gonzalez

Brenan Gonzalez is from Lake Worth, FL, and began his dance training through his love and passion for hip-hop styles at the age of 4. He is a 2021 graduate from Alexander W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts with a major in dance, as well as a former student and company member at That's Dancing and Fusion Force Dance Company. He is a current first-year BFA student at the University of Southern California Gloria Kaufman School of Dance. Brenan is also a two-time YoungArts awardee, that of which includes a 2020 honorable mention and a 2021 merit award in the modern/contemporary discipline. Through his expansive movement vocabulary in a multitude of dance genres — including hip-hop, various ballet techniques, Horton technique, Taylor technique, Dunham technique, percussive dance, contemporary, and improvisation — the idea of hybridity within dance is a significant aspect of his movement study and research. During the 2019-2020 dance season, Brenan trained as an assistant with Intrigue Dance Convention on their National Competition Tour, that of which sparked his interest and passion for choreography, creation, and dance education. Most recently, Brenan has taken interest into site-specific choreographic projects and multimedia presentation, in hopes of finding complete intersection between dance and film. Brenan has multiple self-choreographed works and artistic collaborations for the Southern California Choreographic Collective during the 2021-2022 academic year, as well as an individual work within USC Kaufman's Freshman Choreographic Showcase 2022. Brenan attended the 2021 A.I.M Winter Intensive, where he was granted the opportunity to work with Kyle Abraham and the A.I.M company dancers as well as perform a concept-based collaborative showcase, curated by the A.I.M company and created by the dancers. Brenan has worked with other notable dance artists such as Justin Peck, Bret Easterling, Achinta McDaniel, Patrick Corbin, Peter Stark, Darrell Moultrie, Lloyd Culbreath, and more. Brenan's performance repertoire includes, but is not limited to, Bob Fosse's 'Crunchy Granola Suite,' staged by Lloyd Culbreath; Justin Peck's 'Rodeo,' staged by Michael Breeden and Justin Peck; Jiří Kylián's 'Sarabande' and 'Falling Angels,' staged by Fiona Lummis. This coming Fall, as a part of his studies at USC Kaufman, Brenan will be working with dance artist Peter Chu, current artistic director of Chuthis Dance Company and previous company member of Crystal Pite's Kidd Pivot.

Dreyfoos School of the Arts and primarily trained under the mentorship of former American Ballet Theater company member, Eileen Hebron. Ekko is also an alumni of various pre-professional programs, including The Pennsylvania Ballet, Joffrey Ballet, and Next Generation Ballet. They have had the opportunity to perform a multitude of master works, like Murray Louis's Four Brubeck Pieces, George Balanchine's Concerto Barocco, Paul Taylor's Esplanade, & Bob Fosse's Crunchy Granola Suite, while also being a part of new creations - more recently the world premiere of Asia Pyron's Sov-e-reign at the Boston Conservatory. Ekko has primarily trained in various ballet techniques & pointe work, Limón technique, Horton technique, contemporary dance, improvisation, jazz dance, and they have an intense interest in choreography and multimedia projects. As a multi-instrumentalist, writer, photographer, and artist, Ekko is looking forward to producing collaborative pieces of work over the next years for the Boston Conservatory Choreographic Showcase, an ongoing series of presentations where Ekko first presented their work in 2021. Taking a somatic and conscious approach to classical techniques while also exploring new ways of movement, Ekko is thrilled to teach and choreograph this summer. This summer, Ekko will be attending the Limón Dancer's Intensive and GagaLab Summer Workshop in New York.

Amanda Servidio is from West Palm Beach, Florida. She loves anything and everything that has to do with expression through movement and music that evokes emotion in an artist and audience. At the age of four her parents enrolled her into dance classes and she has been training every year since. She was granted the ability to attend Bak Middle School of the Arts and Dreyfoos School of the Arts where my knowledge and understanding of dance was further developed and expanded. During this time she also attended a studio after school and a variety of conventions on the weekends. It wasn't until her senior year that she ultimately decided to pursue dance as her career with the realization that she would be miserable doing anything else. Senior year, she achieved the position as Intrigue Assistant where she traveled throughout the United States, Canada, and Costa Rica assisting the faculty and choreographing works. Amanda is currently in the process of receiving her BFA in Dance at Florida State University and will be a Senior this Fall. Her dreams include being a commercial dancer and choreographer professionally in the field. Amanda's goal in life is to connect with as many individuals as possible and create relationships that allow each of us to be one step closer to the best version of ourselves. She perceives dance as the "saving grace" in a destructive world and an outlet to bring the community together with expression through movement.

Ashley Nazzar

Ashley Nazzar began dancing at the age of four, and immediately fell in love with the interconnection between movement, expression and performance- ultimately leading her to pursue a career in dance. She is a native of South Florida, and graduated from Alexander W. Dreyfoos School of Arts. There, she performed an array of repertoire including George Balanchine's Concerto Barocco, Diane Acteon, and Raymonda. After graduating, Ashley moved to New York City in order to continue pursuing a career in dance, and is currently attending the Joffrey Ballet School as an appointed trainee. She has been given the opportunity to perform a principal role for one the pieces in the academy's annual spring show. Along with this, she was handpicked from among the entire school to be part of the Joffrey Ballet Concert Group, a competitive and selective pre-professional company that demands the highest level of expertise in both ballet and contemporary technique. Through dancing and teaching, Ashley desires to create an encouraging environment and safe space for aspiring young artists to grow, as well as share their passion to others. Ashley hopes that, by pursuing a profession in the performing arts, she is able to spread joy by any means possible through her work.

As an Acrobatic Arts Certified instructor, Kaely specializes in incorporating Acro safely into dance training. Kaely currently teaches dance locally and is on the staff at Imagine Dance Challenge, a National Dance Competition, as a backstage manager and tabulator. As a That's Dancing and FFDC Alumni, Kaely is so happy to be back home and teaching in the studio that helped her become the dancer and choreographer she is today.

Rachel Abelenda is a graduate of A.W. Dreyfoos School of the Arts where she was a dance major. She most recently attended the University of the Arts in Philadelphia studying dance. Rachel is a dancer that likes to create, analyze, explore and share different styles of movement. She has experience teaching improvisation, contemporary, conditioning, leaps and turns, jazz and hip-hop and looks forward to expanding her teaching range to include more styles of dance. Rachel's professional experiences include choreographer for "Speak Life" the musical, Assistant at Intrigue Dance Convention Circuit, dancer for concept videos with Zenki Productions, Alexa Olivier and Strictly media. With all of these experiences, Rachel looks most forward to introducing curiosity in young dancers and allowing them a voice through their movement to explore different ways of moving. She aims to empower students to move and create in a positive way.

ALL VOLUNTEERS!

WE COULDN'T DO IT WITHOUT YOUR SUPPORT

Our Mission

THAT'S DANCING STRIVES TO MAINTAIN A STUDIO THAT GIVES INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION AND PROPER TECHNIQUE TRAINING TO STUDENTS IN A WARM AND FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE. WE BELIEVE THAT A DANCER IS A PRODUCT OF HIS/HER TEACHERS. THE DEVELOPMENT OF A DANCER IS PARALLELED THROUGH THE RELATIONSHIP OF EXPERT AND PROFESSIONAL TEACHERS AND THEIR ASSOCIATION WITH THEIR STUDENTS.
